

The Geneva Theatre Guild is accepting proposals for our 2021/2022 Season! The deadline for all submissions is June 30, 2021. To submit, use our Proposal Form which can be found at genevatheatreguild.org/volunteer.

Directors should include in their proposals: a résumé, a one-page budget, a copy of the script (or a detailed synopsis of the show if the script is not available), a statement describing your vision for the production, a list of any creative elements that may be required, and a list of staff members who have already agreed to work on the production if it is selected.

Proposed productions for the autumn and winter of 2021 (September - December) must meet the following criteria:

- 1) A small play or musical with a cast of no more than six actors who must be masked when they are not on stage.
- 2) Low technical requirements so that there are not more than three production team members in the room who will remain masked and distanced from the cast.
- 3) Productions will be performed live but must have streaming rights available in case we cannot safely allow an audience in the theatre.

Proposed productions for the winter and spring (January-June) of 2022 must meet the following criteria:

- 1) A play or small musical.
- 2) Productions will be performed live but must have streaming rights available in case we cannot safely allow an audience in the theatre.

Proposed productions for the summer (August) of 2022 must meet the following Criteria:

- 1) The production must be a musical to be performed at the Smith Opera House.
- 2) Performances will be live but must have streaming rights available in case we cannot safely allow an audience in the theatre.
- 3) The musical must have a total cast of 20 or less actors and should not require a large pit band or crew.

All directors and production teams are asked to be patient and flexible as we continue to receive updated guidance from the CDC amid the COVID-19 pandemic and revise our own protocol accordingly.
